From the moment you step onto this property, you feel that this is the one. The setting alone is something you almost never find in Lake Naomi: a beautifully remodeled home tucked along the Upper Tunkhannock Creek, the very waterway that feeds the lake, wrapped in protected green space that makes the entire experience feel private, peaceful, and completely immersive. Standing here, you hear the creek moving, see the trees opening just enough to frame the water, and feel that rare sense of calm that only comes from a truly special location. It's not just waterfront—it's a protected, quiet, natur...
